Department of Creative Technologies and Product design, College of Innovative Design and Management, National Taipei University of Business, Taiwan and Sangam University, Bhilwara, Rajasthan, India agree to promote academic co-operation and strengthen educational, cultural, and technological programs. These will result in a better understanding between both institutions, support the internationalization of their campuses, and enhance their contributions to the well being of their respective communities. To further these objectives, the institutions intend to use their best efforts to arrive at separate formal agreements in a broad range of areas to implement the following goals:

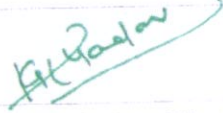

1. The institutions mutually agree to exchange information, faculty and students in both academic and research programs.
2. The institutions will formulate specific action agreements to assist in creating and operating academic and research programs.
3. The institutions will explore ways and means to finance joint projects through special government and other funding sources.

National Taipei University of Business (NTUB), Taiwan and Sangam University, India will encourage active contact between their relevant colleges, academic and administrative units, and student groups to accomplish these goals.

This Memorandum of Understanding will be applicable for a period of three years beginning with the academic year 2020-21. It shall be automatically renewed for an additional three years unless either party expresses the desire to terminate the agreement. Either institution may suspend or terminate the agreement on a one year advance written notice.

Each separate addendum to this memorandum of understanding will specify the objectives, manner of execution, financial obligations, term of validity, and administrative responsibility of each institution.

Any matter not clarified in this Memorandum of Understanding will be resolved by mutual agreement of the participating institutions.
