3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in spite of the fact that the petitioner is legally entitled for grant of NOC, the requisite NOC has not been issued, which has adversely affected petitioner's right of taking part in the counseling of students for GNM Course, first round whereof is already over.

4. Issue notice. Issue notice of the stay application also, returnable within a period of six weeks.

5. It will be required of the competent authority of the respondent- State to issue requisite NOC to the petitioner, in accordance with law, by the next date of hearing obviously, if the petitioner is entitled for the same.

6. Meanwhile, respondent No.1 and 2 shall permit the petitioner to participate in the ongoing counseling for G.N.M. course for 60 seats for the academic year 2024-25.

7. Needless to observe that the selection of students shall be provisional and the fact that their admission is provisional will be duly indicated in the letter/order of admission given to each of the students.

8. However, in case, the petitioner is not entitled for 'NOC' the respondents shall send a communication in this regard to the petitioner- Institute and inform the Court about the same on the next date of hearing.

9. Connect with S.B. Civil Writ Petition No. 11030/2024.
