JUSTICE DINESH MEHTA

Order

23 JUL 2024.
22/07/2024

1. Learned counsel for the petitioner -Institute submits that despite the inspection report being in favour of the petitioner as no infirmity has been pointed out, the respondents have yet not granted NOC in favour of the petitioner. Learned counsel contended that the petitioner would suffer an irreparable loss if he is not permitted to participate in the ongoing counseling.
2. Mr. N.S. Rajpurohit, learned Additional Advocate General is directed to appear in the matter.

3. Mr. Rajpurohit, learned Additional Advocate General submits that grant of NOC is pending consideration before the Scrutiny Committee and as and when the decision is taken, accordingly, the order would be passed by the Committee. Learned counsel further submits that the counseling is ongoing.

4. List this case on 12.08.2024, as prayed.

5. In the meanwhile, it is ordered that if any round of counseling is held by the respondents, then, the petitioner will be provisionally ordered to participate in the counseling after the payment of due fees, if any, for the purpose of admission to the BPT Course in the upcoming Academic Session 2024-2025, as per the annual intake capacity of seats sanctioned by the State.

6. However, it is made clear that inclusion of petitioner institution for allotment of students and admission accorded in pursuance thereto, shall not create any right of equity in favour of the petitioner-institution or the students admitted to the course pursuant to this interim order. The admission accorded shall remain subject to the decision of the writ petitions.

7. The respondents would be at liberty to file application for vacation of this interim order.

8. Office is directed to reflect the name of Mr. N.S. Rajpurohit, learned Additional Advocate General, who is appearing for the respondents, in the daily cause list.

9. Connect with S.B. Civil Writ Petition No.11355/2024.
